

colluvio Master Classes + International Concert Tour 2024

11 days of intensive Master classes at Hornegg Castle, Austria 22nd July – 1st August 2024 followed by

11 days of public concerts during an international tour 2nd August – 14th August 2024

“The colluvio Chamber Music Academy provides an intense and hugely rewarding experience for talented young chamber music players who are excited for new challenges and adventures in their performing career.”

Programme: “On the 100th anniversary of the death of GABRIEL FAURÉ” (4. XII 2024)
Piano Trio op. 120, Piano Quartet op. 15, Violin Sonata op. 13, Piano Quintet op. 115

Who can apply? We encourage piano, violin, viola and cello students who have reached an advanced stage of their musical and technical development to apply.
There are 12 places for students from all over Europe and beyond.

VIDEO summer tour 2023, FAURÉ, Piano Quartet op. 45: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Pbu0bIMd-d0>

Expected SUMMER CONCERT TOUR 2024

Hornegg Castle / Austria – opening night

Millstatt / Austria, Festival “Musikwochen Millstatt”

Ljubljana / Slovenia, “Imago Festival”. Recorded by the Radio Television of Slovenia

Augsburg / Germany, “Piece Festival” 2024

Feldafing (near Munich) / Germany, Festival “Feldafinger Musiktage”

Vienna / Austria – Schubert’s Birth House

Budapest / Hungary – Austrian Cultural Forum Budapest

Belgrade / Serbia – Guildhall of Belgrade. Radio and Video recording (Broadcast), LIVE REGISTRATION

Auditions: The final date for submitting your recordings is 15.02.2024.

Team: Yuri Kot, Piano, Professor at the Music Academy of Kiev
Olivera Milić-Hirscher, Violin, Professor at the Special School for Music Talents in Čuprija, Serbia
Meinhard Holler, Cello Professor in Munich, Founder of the colluvio Chamber Music Academy

Guest Critic: Claus-Christian Schuster, Piano, Founder of the Schubert Trio and Altenberg Trio Vienna

Further information on programme choice, requirements for auditions and applications, costs and scholarships as well as numerous archive recordings can be found on www.colluvio.com .