

Herbert von Karajan Young Conductors Award

Supported by ROLEX

Chairman of the jury: Manfred Honeck

An international career as big as Herbert von Karajan's may not be the goal of young conductors when they set out, but could well be the glimmer of a dream. The Herbert von Karajan Young Conductors Award is an initiative of the Salzburg Festival that aims to bring this dream closer.

Apply now!

Young conductors between 21 and 35 years of age can register online
Deadline: 15 January 2023

Semi-final: Rehearsal Day on 3 April 2023

Eight selected candidates demonstrate their skills conducting the Mozarteum Orchestra Salzburg and the contemporary music ensemble œnm at the non-public "Rehearsal Day" in Salzburg.

Final: Award Concert Weekend from 4 to 6 August 2023

Three finalists each conduct a concert with the Camerata Salzburg in the official programme of the Salzburg Festival 2023.

Prizes

The prize money is € 15,000.-- and the winner will be invited to conduct the Award Winner's Concert during the Salzburg Festival 2024.

Registration form, conditions of participation and further information: salzburgfestival.at/en/yca

