Be a part of Yiddish Summer Weimar!

Your Internship at Yiddish Summer Weimar 2023

Yiddish Summer Weimar (YSW) is considered one of the most important and comprehensive summer festivals in the world for Yiddish and related cultures. Each year, artists, musicians, and scholars join participants and guests from around the world in workshops, jam sessions, concerts, dances, and other events. This year, YSW will focus on the many connections between Yiddish and Greco-Turkish musical cultures.

As an intern you will gain insights into the organization and realization of the festival. Depending on your interests, you can support the Yiddish Summer Weimar team in different areas:

- Support as an artist buddy
- Supporting the workshops
- Assistance in the office and project management
- Assistance at the Info-point and the shop
- Assisting the social media team
- Support at evening events

We offer you:

- participation in contemporary, living Greco-Turkish-Jewish culture
- a diverse, relaxed and open team
- the space to contribute your existing strengths and to develop new skills
- the opportunity to become part of an international community of creative cultural workers
- free admission to all evening events and insights into the content of workshops

We are looking for open-minded and flexible people who like to work in a team and get involved. You don't need any experience in festival work, but you should be willing to learn new things. English or other language skills and a driver's license are welcome, but not prerequisites.

Arrange your internship period flexibly: for the preparation period starting in May, during the festival from July 15 to August 19, 2023 or for the follow-up until the end of August.

Information about the application and the festival can be found at www.yiddishsummer.eu/volunteering.
