III Moscow International David Oistrakh Violin Competition, 2008

IV Moscow International David Oistrakh Violin Competition, 2010
I am very pleased to see that David Oistrakh Charity Foundation continues to follow in the path of the great Russian music traditions and not only recognizes young violinists at the contest but also supports them further in their lives, for instance, by organizing concerts for them, giving master classes and offering assistance in cooperation with other institutions.
