MUSICA ANTIQUA COMPETITION
for harpsichord option organ

As a high quality early music festival, MAfestival Bruges invests in the talent of young musicians. Since 1964, the festival organizes the annual International Competition Musica Antiqua. In 2012, the harpsichord (option organ) is the selected instrument. The jury is composed of musicians and music educators with an international reputation: Johan Huys, Kenneth Weiss, Skip Sempé, Christine Schornsheim and Menno van Delft.

Subscribe now for the International Competition Musica Antiqua through our website. Deadline for registration is April 15th 2012.
