European Young Artists’ Jazz Award Burghausen 2018

On the occasion of the 49th Burghausen International Jazz Festival from March 6 to 11, 2018, the town’s jazz association, Interessengemeinschaft Jazz Burghausen e.V., in cooperation with the town of Burghausen, invites the submission of entries to the 10th European Young Artists’ Award Burghausen 2018.

This prize, which is awarded annually, has been created to actively promote promising young jazz artists.

Target Group

Combos of three or more musicians and big bands based in Europe. Participants must not be older than 30 years on March 6, 2018 (b. 1988 and after).

Style

All varieties of jazz will be admitted.

Prize Money

1st place: 5,000 Euro
2nd place: 3,000 Euro
3rd place: 1,000 Euro

The winning band (1st place) will also open the first festival’s concert on the next day performing for a large audience.

Jury

Prof. Joe Viera, Management
Co-founder of the International Jazz Festival Burghausen
Director of the Center for Contemporary Music, Burghausen

Roland Spiegel
Editor for jazz and classical music at Bayerischer Rundfunk broadcasting corporation, Munich.

Ralf Dombrowski
Journalist and music critic (Süddeutsche Zeitung, Bayerischer Rundfunk, Jazz thing, Jazzzeitung and others), author and photographer

Reinhard Köchl
Music journalist (Jazz thing, Jazztheatik, Augsburger Allgemeine a.o.), cultural pr und author