Simon Rattle, Heinz Holliger, Matthias Pintscher, Ensemble intercontemporain, Barbara Hannigan, Midori, Unsuk Chin, Johannes Maria Staud, and many more...

Through daily rehearsals and master classes, participants in the LUCERNE FESTIVAL ACADEMY will work on contemporary orchestral, ensemble, and chamber music repertoire by an exciting range of composers, including Berio, Chin, Holliger, Lachenmann, Pintscher, Staud, Mahler, and others. Each participant’s work will be supervised by internationally acclaimed conductors, composers, and musicians. Academy participants will perform the works which they have prepared in several concerts that are part of the programming for LUCERNE FESTIVAL in Summer. Along with its official concert programs, the LUCERNE FESTIVAL ACADEMY offers participants several other platforms through which they can experiment with innovative concert formats.

There is no fee for active participation in the LUCERNE FESTIVAL ACADEMY Orchestra or Choir. Travel, accommodation, and meals, as well as scores, vocal and instrumental parts, are provided by the LUCERNE FESTIVAL ACADEMY.
