RNCM JAMES MOTTRAM INTERNATIONAL PIANO COMPETITION

26 NOVEMBER - 1 DECEMBER 2018

ABOUT THE COMPETITION
We invite applications for the RNCM James Mottram International Piano Competition (JMIPC) from talented pianists under the age of 30. This major biennial competition, which has a particular focus on the works of Scarlatti, Chopin and Debussy, attracts competitors from all over the world.

BENEFITS TO COMPETITORS

- Thrilling performance opportunities: finalists will be accompanied by the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra and conductor Robert Spano in the RNCM Concert Hall.
- A substantial prize fund including a first prize of £10,000.
- The chance to gain a scholarship to study at the Royal Northern College of Music.
- Travel bursaries for shortlisted participants who live outside of Europe.
- Invaluable learning opportunities: those who do not progress to the next stage of the competition will be given the opportunity to take part in a public masterclass given by a jury member during their time in Manchester.
