One week in the heart of Germany, making music in a one-of-a-kind setting.

where.

Hundisburg Castle lies in the heart of Germany, in Saxony-Anhalt. First mentioned in 1140, the fortress was rebuilt into a Renaissance castle in the middle of the 16th century and complemented by baroque elements in the 18th century. Hundisburg, with its historically important park, is now one of the most significant and beautiful Baroque castles in Germany.

The orchestra academy of 27th annual SummerMusicAcademy will take place from 18th (arrival) to 28th (last concert) July 2019, directly at Hundisburg Castle. The departure is possible on 28th and 29th July.

It’s free! The SummerMusicAcademy grants each musician a scholarship covering travel costs from hometown or place of study as well as room and board. Additionally, each orchestra member receives a 300 Euro stipend for the programme’s duration.

The international orchestra is under the direction of Johannes Klumpp since 2007, who is also Artistic Director of the SummerMusicAcademy Hundisburg Castle since 2013. He is Chief Conductor and Artistic Director of the Folkwang Chamber Orchestra Essen where he regularly appears in the dual role of conductor and presenter to encourage audiences’ connection with the music.

From 2009 to 2011 Johannes Klumpp was »1st Kapellmeister« at the »Musiktheater im Revier« in Gelsenkirchen. He has won several prizes like the Special Prize of the »Deutscher Dirigentenpreis« in 2011. During his many concert activities, he has also been frequently invited as a guest conductor to work with various renowned orchestras like Düsseldorfer Symphoniker, Russian Philharmonic Orchestra and Konzerthausorchester Berlin.
