Going on for seven consecutive years, the Tomarimbando is an International Percussion Festival, the largest event of its kind made in Portugal, which takes place in the city of Tomar, recognized internationally for brands and musicians, organized by the Gualdim Pais Philharmonic Society. Have already the participation of musicians such as Mark Ford, Kunico Kato, Pedro Carneiro, Durum, Nebojsa Zivkovic, Nuno Aroso, Jeffrey Davis, Les Percut, Jean Francois Leze.

Its main objectives:

• the spread of percussive music performed throughout the world;
• provide an experience of artistic work to young professional musicians and music students;
• promote the internationalization of artistic experiences, by conducting master classes and concerts with foreign professionals;
• encourage decentralization and promotion of artistic musical production, reducing regional imbalances;
• To sensitize public and private institutions that the Festival is a source of economic development and local and regional tourism.

The musicians who will be in this year 2013 between 1st and 5th of July are: Chin Cheg Lin (Taiwan); Manuel Rangel (Venezuela); Miquel Bernat (Spain); Nuno Aroso (Portugal); Bogdan Bacanu - "Wave Quartet" (Romania)

During the week percussion groups will participate in various masterclasses and workshops directed by guest musicians and also performing schools concerts.
