7. Every applicant shall upload the consent with his/her tutor's signature.
8. Travel subsidy:
   The Organizing Committee provides travel subsidy to candidates qualified to the first round, and the actual amount of the subsidy is based on where the candidate's school is. Candidates should hold valid economic class air tickets with boarding passes, railway tickets, ferry tickets, bus tickets or any other valid travel documents. Subsidy is provided according to the following principles:
   - Candidates studying in Europe, America, Oceania and Africa will receive a subsidy of 400 USD per capita;
   - Candidates studying in Asia, including Taiwan and Chinese mainland (except Guangdong Province, Hong Kong SAR and Macau SAR) will receive a subsidy of 250 USD per capita.
   For candidates studying in Guangdong Province, Hong Kong SAR, or Macau SAR, if the expense exceeds 250 USD, candidates will receive a subsidy of USD 250; if the expense is less than 250 USD, the subsidy will be the actual amount.
   Accommodation (breakfast included) is provided when a candidate is still competing.
9. The Organizing Committee does not cover the unsuccessful candidates' traveling, catering and accommodation expenses. However, the Organizing Committee can help the unsuccessful candidates make the reservation of their catering and accommodation in the designated restaurants and hotels. Participants in Group C who come alone can choose to stay with guest families.
10. The Organizing Committee will allocate the official collaborative pianists to the candidates at no cost. A candidate may bring his/her own accompanist at his/her own expense.
11. The Organizing Committee must be informed of any change of plan in time during the competition.
12. The decisions of the jury are final and not subject to question, review or appeal.
13. Participation in the competition indicates full acceptance of the conditions, including rights for the organizer to live stream, broadcast, record, televise, film and publicize the performances during the competition. The Organizing Committee reserves the copyright of all audio and video productions and offers no payment to participants.
14. Participants shall attend the concerts organized by the Competition Committee during the competition.
15. All winners must attend the Closing and Award Ceremony. The absentee is considered to automatically disqualify his/her award.
16. The winners will have the opportunities to engage in concerts or recitals in China or other countries/regions arranged by the Organizing Committee. (The winners will sign contracts with the Organizing Committee.)
